JEWEL PRESENTATION. - A pleasant epis de occurred at the Sanctuary of the Ancient and Accepted Scottish Right of Free and Accepted Masons, in Washington, on Wednesday night. This was the presentation of a magnificent i wel to General Albert Pike, of this city, the Sovereign Commander. The presentation was made by Robert Toombs, of Georgia, in an eloquent and touching address, to which General I'ike feelingly responded. The jewel is composed of a gold d uble headed eagle, studded with two hundred and sixty diamonds. In the centre of the eagle's heart is a large amethys: in the form of a trangle, in which is inserted the figures "33" in gold. Over the head of the eagle is a crown composed entirely of rubies and diamonds. In its talons the cagle ho ds a flaming sword of gold, from which is suspended a scroll bearing the inscription, "Deus meum que jus." The cost of the jewel was $900, and to design and workmanship is beau tiful and artistic. The presentation was made in the presence of over fifty members of the Scottish Rite from all parts of the United States. A grand barquet followed, during which the greatest joility and good humor prevailed, and a most enjoyable evening ensued.

THE A. & W. R. R.-Workmen commenced this morning to tear up the track of the A. & W. R. R., on St. Asaph street. At the request of four members, the President of the Common Council has called his Board together to night to take some further action in regard to a compromise with the company whereby the running of cars may be resumed.

Potato Bugs. - A new means of getting rid of these pests has been discovered by Mr. Juo. Slater, the well known horticulturist. He had his poratoes nearly destroyed last year by the bugs, which afterwards attacked his egg plants. H · sprinkled the vines with hydraulic cement, while the dew was on them, in the morning, and after two applications was troubled no more with the bugs. The cement is much chesper than Paris green, and is not so dangerous to WILLIAM RILEY. - William Riley, the man who died near Pobick last week, leaving a jug full of money, was known as a miser, and among the $1,170.75 in specie that were found after his death, was the first piece of money he ever owned-a dime. The cause of his death was an injury he received a week before he died by falling torough the railroad bridge over Pobick Ruo. It was known by his neighbors that he had money concealed somewhere, for he told them so, and said that none of his kinsfolk should have it. He selected his burying place, and as it was nowhere near that of any other member of his family, it was supposed, and as it turned out rightly, that he wanted to be put close to his treasure so as to guard it, and a search resulted in finding it a short distance from his grave. His treasure was build in a jug, from which the mouth had been knocked off, and the hole in it covered by the half of a soldier's canteen—and was divided equally among eight heirs, John Hall, who made the division, charging each of them fifty cents.

PENTECOST.-To-morrow will be celebrated in the Catholic and Episcopal churches as Pentecost or Whit Sunday. It is called Pentecost from a Greek word signifying fiftieth-this fes tival occurring on the fiftieth day after Easter. The name of Whit Sunday originated from the custom in ancient times of wearing white garments by the catechameus, who were baptized on the eve of this day. The festival is celebrated is commemoration of the descent of the Holy Ghost upon the Apostles after the ascension of Christ. In the Cathelic Church the festival is celebrated during eight days, and the grace of the Holy Spirit is invoked upon and live a holy life.

TELEGRAPH NEWS.

From Washington.

CONGRESS.

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 3, 1876.-The Senate, during the morning hour, discussed the Indian commission in reference to the Black Hills.

The Civil bill was afterwards taken up. The House amendment fixing the salary of the President at $25,000 was lost, and an amendment was agreed to by a vote of 21 to 5 fixing the salary at $50,000.

The bill was further discussed.

The House, after wrangling for some time ever a proposition to refer a bill to utilize certain gold and silver mines, and receiving and referring a number of bills, resolved itself into the Committee of the Whole and took up and further considered the Indian Appropriation

THE BLAINE INVESTIGATION.

The Judiciary Committee had a full meeting to-day, at which the question of the right of the sub committee to demand the famous letters as evidence, and to report the action of the sub committee to the House, was discussed at length, but no conclusion arrived at, and the | Prof. Heyman. committee adjourned till Monday.

The sub-committee met at 2 o'clock and went into the investigation of the charges all to enable them to restrain their passions against Mr. B. in reference to the Northern Pacific bonds.

THE KERR INVESTIGATION.

Mr. Clymer's committee met this morning, when Harney was notified that he would be wanted no longer. He made a copy of the anonymous letter written Mr. Kerr, the spelling being very bad and the writing somewhat similar to that of the original. The committee, without hearing any evidence, adjourned until Monday at 11 o'clock, when it is thought the case will be concluded and Mr. Kerr fully exonerated.

AN INCIDENT. The Indian Appropriation bill being under consideration in the House to day, and Colonel James Riley, of Winchester, Va., the great Incahone of the State, being on the floor, it was suggested that he be permitted to address the House in behalf of his brothers of the red skips, but it being out of order, and several members of the tribes being gathered together. the pipe (eig ir) of peace was smoked by Representative Harris, and the council adjourned to a more congenial spot-not far from the

The Eastern Poisoning Case.

Easton, Pa., June 3 -Moses Schuy another member of the family recently poisoned has died since yesterday, making the third death. The Coroner's inquest which is still in session, elicits the fact that arsenic was the poison used, and that there was enough poison in the coffee drank by the unfortunate family to have killed a hundred people. The money was stolen from the house while a large amount of Government bonds and other securities were left untouched. The fact that Jacob Y sung was murdered and robbed at the same place only a few weeks ago creates a still greater feeling of uncaseness among the people living in that neighborhood and a large crowd is gathered to-day in the vicinity of the Larose homestead.

Tragedy.

St. Louis, June 3 .- The remains of a man, woman and girl, the latter about three years old, were found in the woods near Belleville, Ill., yesterday. The woman and child were shot through the head and the man through the heart. From the position of the bodies it is supposed the man shot his wife and child and then killed himself. LOCAL BREVITIES.

The Danville News says: "We learn that the railroad men are quite busy just now trying to arrange the fast mail schedule between Danville and Washington. Arrangements are being made to see whether or not if the plan matures it can be carried out.'

The lecture by Rev. Dr. Peek, at the M. E. Church, last night, on "Pluck vs. Good Luck," was well attended and attentively listened to. The Doctor is a lecturer of much ability, and | Pitt street. many of his illustrations brought down the house in peals of laughter.

The graves of the Confederate dead at Arlington were decorated to-day. Many persons from Washington were present and took part in the exercises, which consisted of prayers and music, and in the strewing of the graves with flowers.

A little newsboy named Milton Heath, fell overboard at the Potomac Ferry slip, yesterday, but was rescued without damage by the bystanders. Upon falling into the water he dropped his papers and grasping a post yelled 'murder' until help reached him. As will be seen by notice elsewhere, a change will be made in the schedule of the Potomac Ferry steamers from Monday next, by adding a trip morning and night. A party of serenaders were out last night and called on several prominent gentlemen, among them Messis, Neale, Falls, Agnew and Much complaint is made of the inconvenient location of the A. & W. depot, and noless some change is made travel by that route will
